IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

FAMILY COURT APPEAL NO.24 OF 2004

Ramchandra Pandurang Chavan .... Appellant.

Vs.

Pournima Sunil Chavan & Ors. .... Respdts.

Shri Rahul S. Kate for appellant.

Shri Anil V. Dhavale for respdts.

CORAM: S.B.MHASE &

S.R.SATHE,JJ.

DATE : 25th July 2005.

PC:

1. The appellant and respondent both are present. Their respective counsel are also present. This matter was referred to a Mediator and the Mediator has stated in her report that there is settlement between the parties. The parties have now submitted the Consent Terms duly signed by them and their respective advocates. We have ascertained from the parties as to whether they have understood the terms of Consent Terms and whether they have entered into the said Consent Terms according to their free will and without influence by any person or thing. Both of them have submitted that they have settled the matter amicably without the influence by any person or thing. In view of permanent alimony and shelter ,independent self contained rooms admeasuring 200 sq.ft. situated at S.No.33, Hissa No.1, Ambegaon Khurd, Haveli,District -Pune has already been handed over to respondent wife. Therefore, respondent -wife has given up the claim over maintenance and has agreed to withdraw the Darkhast 7 of 2004 pending in trial court. Accordingly these Consent Terms have been submitted in this Court. Consent Terms are taken on record and marked 'X' for identification.

2. Family Court appeal is disposed of in terms of Consent Terms.

3. Decree be drawn accordingly.

(S.R.SATHE) (S.B.MHASE)